METRO:

Brenda reported that the City tournament, for sure, will be held at Choke Canyon on October 7 & 8th. Nothing new on this event. Boysville fishing was successful at Brenda's place on June 10th, There were about 30 kids participating. Our club received a nice "Thank you" letter from Town & Country Optimist club for our $250.00 donation for this event.

New Business:

Beth has club hats for sale. The hats will be sold for $25/piece.

A card was picked for the "Doe Hunt" that Walter donated to our club. The winner was

David Glenny (No it wasn't rigged! Colton Beach, our youngest fisherman, pulled the card)

Our "Fund Raiser", this year was postponed from May. The new date was discussed at the club meeting, and voted on. It will to be held on Oct. 21st at Steve & Terri's house. I did confirm with Steve and this date will work for him. So, continue working on collecting prizes for the silent and live auction and plastic containers for the tickets for each silent auction.

Invite your friends and relatives, so this event can be successful!!! We will be selling BBQ plates for $10.

Weldon Pierce will be selling his 1994 Gambler, which was restored in 2008. He wants $16,000 (which includes all electronics). If interested-Email him: weldog27@gmail.com.
